

LONDON

Eurolynx is proud to present a selection of apartments in London. We represent a company with over 20 year's specialist experience in London apartments. Self-catering apartments add flexibility for your accommodation, whether it is to accommodate a family, or small group, or to enable doing your own cooking. They often also provide an alternative for longer stays in London.

Please refer to our separate flyer called "B&B's and small hotels" which provides other options for longer stays in London.

Please find following rates for properties, sorted by the number of rooms. Further descriptions are available for the properties.

Booking information...

- Arrangements will be confirmed for key collection. You will be met by a local representative.
- A security deposit will be required (standard for most apartment bookings).
- A taxi service is available to meet your arriving flight into a London airport, which will take you directly to your apartment. Please ask for further details.
- The operator requires a deposit of GBP 200 on making a booking. Eurolynx will in addition require a separate deposit.

Please contact us if you would like other London accommodation options.
