Aquitaine/Gascony

A gourmet experience!

Situated in south west France, your journey into Aquitaine Gascony takes you along the Garonne valley, the Baise river or the downstream area of the river Lot. Gentle plains streaked with vineyards and dotted with wooded valleys will tempt you ashore for impromptu picnics. Secret fortified towns - or Bastides - such as Valence d'Agen, can be found throughout the region and provide picture perfect scenery to inspire artists and photographers. Relish lazy afternoons in main squares with a glass of Buzet or Cahors wine.

Flavours of the region

■ Let your taste buds take over, as Aquitaine is renowned as a region where good food and feasting are well-loved pastimes! Sample sumptuous foie gras, outstanding armagnac and wines from Graves, St. Emilion and Medoc in their home landscapes. With such wonderful gastronomic delights, you'll want to visit this region time after time!
