

COACHING IN BAVARIA

General Information regarding the Tours

Coaching in Bavaria has been in business since 1974. Awards include the "Best Cultural Travel Idea 1988" by a guild of Travel Writers at the Travel Fair "Matka", held in Helsinki, Finland. The Educated Traveller Newsletter selected Coaching in Bavaria as one of her top ten most intriguing "thinking tours" of the world for 1999. In September 2003 these tours have been included in the famous book "1.000 places to stay before you die".

Coaching In Bavaria operates a variety of tour programs ranging in length from four days to fourteen days. Prices range from €345 for the two-day King Ludwig tour to more than €4,950 for a 14-day program done in Hungary. Travel is done in a diversity of carriages, open hunting carriages, shooting breaks, to regular postal coach carriages with "four-in-hand" PLUS two additional horses (cock horses) when ascending through the Alps. Capacity for the various carriages range from four persons to nine guests although capacity for individual programs can be as many as twenty two guests and more. Private tours can be arranged for a small group.

Eurolynx highly recommends taking either the two or four day King Ludwig tour. You can opt for a longer "Journey across the Alps in a Horse-Drawn Carriage" or any one of the other programs listed.

These tour programs are outside the mass tourism market. Not every amenity of a deluxe or first class tour can be met, but they will try their best. The balance is: guests will see people and scenery and receive a hospitality rarely seen or given to other tourists. Also, where many large tour operators have huge busses which travel between 300 – 450 miles per day, the pace is considerably slower! Somewhere between 18 and 35 miles would be the norm. As a guest, YOU, along with the coach and horses, will be the centre of attention. You'll have to smile and wave a lot to passers-by and the locals as you enter small towns and villages. Get used to it. Whether you like it or not, your face will appear in photos taken by people all over the world.

This is NOT your average travel experience. This is an adventure! Prepare to climb aboard the coaches from yesterday and be transported back in time as your handlers take you on a scenic land cruise. You will see the countryside up close and personal, and travel on tracks and paths not used by cars, trucks or buses. Through forest green, meadows swaying slightly in the breeze, and along riverbanks and lakes, as you meander along at a pace you thought you would never see again! Are you ready for an intriguing look at the landscapes from the seat of a 9-passengers coach built in 1860 or 1875 and restored lovingly and painstakingly to their original splendour?
